

Ancient Law in Context (ALC)

Workshop 4: Citizenship and Law

17-18 October 2014

Provisional Programme

Friday Afternoon:

Venue: Neil MacCormick Room (Old College)

1.30 – 2.00 pm: Tea, Coffee

2.00 – 3.00 pm: Jose Alonso: Nothing is Inalienable for the Romans: the aporiai of Gnomon § 2

3.00 – 3.30 pm: Text: Olivia Robinson

3.30 – 4.00 pm: Tea, Coffee

4.00 – 5.00 pm: Simon Corcoran: Sirmondian 19 and Security of Status in the Fifth Century AD

5.00 – 5.30 pm: Text: Ulrike Roth

5.30 – 7.30 pm: Edward Harris: The Dedication of Phialai for Acquittals by Metics and Citizens, Or Applying Ockham's Razor to the Interpretation of Some Attic Inscriptions

7.30 – 8.00 pm: Drinks

8.00 pm: Dinner – Ciao Roma

Saturday Morning:

Venue: room 2.27 HCA [tbc]

9.00 – 9.30 am: Tea, Coffee

9.30 – 10.30 am: Jakub Urbanik: It is best to declare law for them upon the laws of the Egyptians... - Non-citizens in the Roman Courts

10.30 – 11.00 am: Text: Michael Crawford

11.00 – 11.30 am: Tea, Coffee

11.30 – 12.30 pm: Kimberley Czajkowski: A Roman Formula in the Provinces: Babatha and the actio tutelae

12.30 – 1.00 pm: Text: Jill Harries

1.00 pm: Lunch